PLAINTIFF'S THIRD AMENDED COMPLAINT

Plaintiff William Brockhaus ("Brockhaus" or "Plaintiff") brings this action against defendant Luis Miguel Gallego Basteri a/k/a Luis Miguel ("Miguel" or "Defendant") to recover from Defendant over two million dollars that Defendant withheld as payment for services that Plaintiff rendered pursuant to a management agreement (the "Agreement") whereby Plaintiff would provide Defendant professional management services (the "Services"). Plaintiff asserts claims for breach of contract and a suit in quantum meruit.

2 Defendant is, upon information and belief, a citizen of Florida and regularly conducts business in multiple states across the United States including Texas. Miguel was properly served in this matter and can be served in the future, upon information and belief, through his business office manager, Mr. Bill Zysblat at 250 West 57th Street, Suite 1101, New York, New York 10107.

Notably, Plaintiff negotiated and agreed to the terms of the Agreement in El Paso, Texas, and Defendant knew or had reason to know that Plaintiff would represent him while maintaining an office and working almost exclusively out of El Paso, Texas, when not on tour with Defendant. (See Brockhaus Affidavit). Furthermore, Defendant engaged in “continuous and systematic” activities within Texas, as he regularly scheduled and performed concerts in Texas while under the Plaintiff’s management. 8. When Defendant visited El Paso, he would regularly visit Plaintiff's residence and knew that Plaintiff maintained both his office and employment in El Paso, Texas. Plaintiff had Defendant's personal cell phone number and text number, and vice versa.

9. In or about August 2011, Defendant approached Plaintiff and asked if Plaintiff had any interest in becoming his manager. (See Brockhaus Affidavit filed under seal).

(See Brockhaus Affidavit filed under seal).

13. In September, 2012, Plaintiff entered into the Agreement with Defendant, effective July 1, 2012, whereby Plaintiff would provide Defendant with professional management Services for a two year term and Defendant would pay Plaintiff ten percent (10%) of any gross income he earned. The Agreement automatically renewed until expressly terminated in writing by either party. (See Brockhaus Affidavit filed under seal; see also July 1, 2012, Personal Manager and Personal Management Services Agreement, attached hereto as Exhibit A).

14. Under the terms of the Agreement, Plaintiff and Defendant agreed that Plaintiff would manage all of Defendant's day-to-day business affairs and provide management services, including without limitation, supervising any and all tour management and working with agents and marketing representatives to book and promote Defendant's tours. Plaintiff would occasionally represent Defendant in personal matters; however, those services were not part of the written Agreement. (See Brockhaus Affidavit filed under seal).

15. While acting as Defendant's manager, Plaintiff booked and worked on the "Hits Tour" in July or August 2013, which was awarded Tour of the Year by Latin Billboard. (See Brockhaus Affidavit filed under seal).

On several occasions, representatives from prospective venues traveled to El Paso, Texas to finalize the negotiations, and enter into final contracts for the Defendant's performances. The negotiations, booking, promotions, and advertising on behalf of and for Defendant were performed in whole or in part in El Paso, Texas with the express knowledge and consent of Defendant. (See Brockhaus Affidavit filed under seal).

While working on the promotion and booking of shows, Defendant authorized the use of photos of him to be used as advertisement to promote his shows on various print media throughout the cities that he performed in, including without limitation, shows in El Paso, Texas, and San Antonio, Dallas, and Austin, Texas. (See Brockhaus Affidavit filed under seal; see also Advertising for Texas Concerts, attached hereto as Exhibit B)

20. At no time did Defendant or any representative ever complain to Plaintiff about the services rendered, or request that Plaintiff move his offices from El Paso, Texas. (See Brockhaus Affidavit filed under seal).

21. By February, 2014, Plaintiff had not been paid for at least $2,100,000.00 for services provided to Defendant for the "Hits Tour" under the terms of the Agreement. Plaintiff had multiple telephone conversations regarding termination of the Agreement and receiving payment in full. Both parties ultimately drafted a Termination Agreement. (See Brockhaus Affidavit filed under seal; see also Emails and "Termination Agreement", attached hereto as Exhibit C). Although Defendant's representatives contacted Plaintiff about payment for the services that he provided, Plaintiff has yet to receive payment.

23. Attorney James T. Zelloe contacted Plaintiff by electronic mail on September 10, 2014, and gave him notice that the Agreement was terminated pursuant to its terms or thirty (30) days after notice. Although Mr. Zelloe terminated the Agreement on behalf of Defendant, Plaintiff was not paid the outstanding balance for the services rendered under the terms of the Agreement. (See Brockhaus Affidavit filed under seal; see also Email from Mr. Zelloe attached as Exhibit D).

24. Plaintiff then requested that Luis Miguel pay him $2,100,000.00, or the unpaid amount due to him for the services rendered to Defendant. (See Brockhaus Affidavit filed under seal).
